

Intact Place
311 – 6th Avenue SW
Suite 600
Calgary, Alberta

Employment Opportunities

Oil & Gas Equity Research Associate

National Bank Financial is a leading Canadian Financial Services company. A wholly owned subsidiary of the National Bank of Canada, it is an established investment dealer that provides equity research, sales, trading and investment banking services to institutional and retail investors.

The firm is seeking an Associate who will work directly with the Research Analysts in the Intermediate and Junior Oil & Gas sector.

Qualifications:

- Prior experience in Investment Banking, Equity Research or Business Development is required
- Attention to detail and willingness to work long hours
- Ability to work under strict time deadlines in a demanding environment
- Experience with geoScout and XI Technologies an asset
- Strong computer skills, including Excel, PowerPoint, and Word
- Excellent communication and writing skills (English)

Education:

- An undergraduate degree with a focus on business (finance and/or accounting)
- Enrolment in the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) program
- Other designations or degrees such as CA, MBA, P. Eng would be an asset

Duties Include:

- Analysis of financial statements and the valuation of oil & gas companies
- Development and maintenance of financial models to forecast quarterly and annual earnings
- Development and maintenance of industry databases
- Evaluation of additional information from the financial press, corporate, industry and alternative sources
- Assist in writing and editing research notes, reports and analyst presentations
- Communication with institutional clients, management of companies under coverage and equity sales staff

Qualified candidates please e-mail your resume and cover letter to Michelle McFarland at michelle.mcfarland@NBFinancial.com. We appreciate your interest in this position, however, only applicants selected to participate in the interview process will be notified.