JOB POSTING

REQUEST FORM

COMPANY NAME: Manila North Tollways Corporation (MNTC)

COMPANY PROFILE:

The Manila North Tollways Corporation (MNTC) was formerly owned by the Lopez Group through its infrastructure arm: the First Philippine Infrastructure Development Corporation (FPIDC). Metro Pacific Investment Corporation (MPIC) later bought FPIDC, making MPIC the majority owner of MNTC. The other MNTC shareholders are: Egis Projects S.A. of France, reputedly the world's biggest tollways operator; Leighton Asia Ltd. Of Australia, a civil works specialist with an extensive track record in toll road construction; and Philippine National Construction Corporation (PNCC), the state-owned company that holds the franchise for the operation of the expressway. MNTC was granted the concession to finance, design, rehabilitate, expand, operate and maintain the North Luzon Expressway (NLEX) until 2030.
