VP Program Report

Jose Arau summarized upcoming programs. On September 15 the monthly luncheon will be Hedge Fund Portfolio Construction and the speaker is Ho Ho from CalPERS.

On October 13, Cemex will be presenting.

On October 18, Steve Shendler will be discussing Indexing Efficiencies. The board agreed to waive the $10 charge for anyone in attendance from STRS.

Mr. Arau stated that he is still trying to secure Bud Haslett for the December event luncheon.

VP Membership Report

Dave Chandler stated it was too early to provide a membership report. The report is normally completed the first week of the month. Mr. Chandler stated the database is updated and currently there are 40 CFA candidates.

VP Social/Education Report

Dave Carmany not in attendance. Mr. Bell stated that Mr. Carmany is researching a Kings game event. Mr. Carmany received a letter from the Kings organization stating that he will be receiving a letter at a later date with game date options.

Mr. Bell addressed to the board a question that was received from a student who works at CalPERS. Will there be scholarships for next year from the CFA? Mr. Bell stated there would be 10 CFA scholarships to offer CFA candidates next year.

Mr. Bell also recommended that the review course should be done again. He summarized the data from students who attended the CFA review course. Mr. Bell also stated that he had received a request from a student who had taken the review course and wanted a discount or to retake the review class for free. The board agreed that if a student was to retake the review course again it would only be offered at a discount.

VP Public Awareness Report

Brent Cardwell discussed with the board the holiday party scheduled for sometime in the first week of December. The board discussed location for the party. Many stated that more people would have attended last year's function if it were located downtown. The budget for the holiday party is $6,000. Mr. Cardwell will check into locations both downtown and Roseville to determine the best price for location.

VP Job Placement Report

Dan Bienvenue stated that he is checking into April or May for a golf tournament. Mr. Bienvenue also stated there is nothing to report for job placement.

VP Marketing & Technology Report

Teresa Cutter asked that Mr. Arau provide an event description to post on the website.

Professional Forum Update

Mr. Bell is trying to secure speakers for the November event. He also stated that Mr. Arau should go forward and plan a November luncheon.

Washington DC SLC

Ms. Jimenez, Mr. Cardwell and Mr. Bell will be attending the conference.

Meeting adjourned at 1:25 PM
