

Leith Wheeler Investment Counsel Ltd.
Canadian Equity Portfolio Manager
Vancouver

Leith Wheeler is offering the right candidate an exciting opportunity to become a member of its successful Canadian equity team. We employ a fundamental, value-oriented investment philosophy.

We are looking for an entrepreneurial, independent-thinking individual to take responsibility and add value to several industry sectors of our Canadian equity portfolios, including the mining, gold and perhaps other resource sectors.

Attributes of a successful candidate would include:

- At least 7 years of investment or resource industry experience, with an emphasis on investment analysis, security selection and portfolio construction.
- A passion for picking stocks and generating money-making investment ideas.
- Highly effective and creative written and verbal communication and presentation skills.
- Strong interpersonal skills with the ability to fit into a team-oriented environment.
- An undergraduate degree and a CFA designation.
- A resource engineering designation would be beneficial.

Established in 1982, Leith Wheeler Investment Counsel Ltd. is an independent, Vancouver-based investment counsel managing $9.7 billion of assets on behalf of pension, foundation, corporate and individual clients across Canada. We are owned by our employees.

Please submit your resume, in confidence no later than August 31, 2010 to:
