

Exceptional opportunity available for motivated, bright, dynamic junior-intermediate CFA who wants to be on the fast track. If you have a background in Finance or Accounting, with 2 years experience in the finance or investment sector read on.....

You will provide financial and analytical support to the senior management team in a high growth, high profile international organization. There will be a strong emphasis on Planning, Budgeting and Forecasting.

Specifically you will;-

- Compile and analyze the consolidated budget, forecast and strategic business plans
- Prepare and coordinate Board materials/packages
- Conduct research related to the economy, industry competitors and company
- Create complex financial models using Excel (VBA)
- Ad hoc projects and analysis

You will be/have:-

- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Innate ability to work under pressure and according to deadlines
- Superb organization and analytical skills
- A thinker, outside of the box, of course
- Highly professional, team oriented and hi energy.
- An accounting/finance background, in finance, or investment and studying towards CFA, or close to completion.

Please forward your resume to scarney@vantageresourcing.com. We regret that we are only able to contact those individuals who are selected for interview.