Raymond James is a leading North American independent full service investment dealer providing clients with a wide range of services including corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, financial advisory services, and sales, trading and equity research for both institutional and private clients.

Position Profile

Raymond James has an opening in Vancouver for an Analyst. As integral members of our Investment Banking team, analysts at Raymond James are responsible for supporting the origination and execution of transactions relating to public and private financings, mergers and acquisitions, and other financial advisory services. Responsibilities include:

- Conducting company and industry research
- Preparing stock price and comparable company analyses
- Developing and maintaining complex financial models, including valuation and merger analysis
- Assisting in the creation and preparation client/prospect presentations

This position offers a competitive salary plus performance-based bonus.

Qualifications and Experience

This position would suit a positive, motivated individual who is a self-starter and a detail-oriented team player who can work with minimal direction.

Candidates for this exciting position must possess:

- An undergraduate or graduate business degree with an outstanding academic record.
- Enrolment in or completion of the CA, CFA and/or CBV designation would be an asset.
- 2-4 years of relevant investment/accounting experience.
- Solid understanding of financial modelling and valuation analysis.
- Superior Excel, Word, PowerPoint and Bloomberg skills.
- Strong communication skills (written and verbal).
- Ability to function in a fast-paced, dynamic work environment.

A willingness to work hard, and an ability to perform at a high level while facing short timelines and multiple deadlines, will all contribute to the individual's success in the position.
