

February 17, 2010

T.E. Investment Counsel Inc.'s Vancouver office has an opening for a Portfolio Analyst. In this position, you will work as a member of a team under the direction of the Investment Counsellor assisting in the ongoing management of existing Vancouver-based investment relationships. You will provide support material for client meetings, follow-up on various transactional activities for client accounts, as well as fulfill special requests from planners and or the IC. You will prepare draft Investment Policy Statements for both new and existing clients for review and approval by the IC. You will also learn to work with and become an expert on the use of our portfolio management system and become proficient with the use of third party manager performance databases.

The successful candidate will have university degree, the Canadian Securities Course and be enrolled in the CFA program. He/she will be an expert in the use of Microsoft Office functions and have strong expertise in Excel. He/she must possess an excellent understanding of the asset management industry and have strong writing and problem solving skills.

For an exceptional opportunity to participate in and contribute to the growth of a great company recognized for its objectivity, integrity and high quality of service, please forward your interest in the position in writing with your resume and a brief explanation why you think you are the ONE to:

Attention Connie Cooper:

ccooper@tewealth.com