CFA Society Bahrain Elects New Leaders

CFA Society Bahrain, the Kingdom's pre-eminent association for local investment professionals, elected its new president and board of directors at its recent Annual General Meeting. The CFA Society Bahrain has been at the forefront in developing ethics, education and good corporate governance within the investment community.

The new members of the board are Lamies Al Baharna – President, Mahmoud Navaz – Vice President, Ali Moulanie – Treasurer, Kamlesh Kasala – Board Secretary, William Tohme – Board Member and Zoubi Askar – Board Member.

Mr. Al Baharna, said: “I am honored to be the new president of the Board of Directors of CFA Society Bahrain. I look forward to further enhancing our members’ experience with increasing levels of educational opportunities, member engagement and collaboration.”

As I step in as new president, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the previous board and especially Neoruddin, former president. We would not be where we are today without his dedication and hard work. He will remain an important part of the work. CFA Society Bahrain will continue to do,” he said.

She also welcomed the new board members who will hold their positions for the next two years from 2013 to 2015. “They are highly skilled individuals who will be a driving force in ensuring the society achieves its key objectives. This reflects our ongoing commitment to be involved in every aspect of the investment community in the Kingdom and around the GCC, which includes promoting the very highest professional standards and ethics, investor education, investor protection and investment standards of practice, amongst others.”

Over the past few years, the society has taken the lead in promoting thought leadership on a broad range of topical issues in what has been a demanding period for the sector. It has developed important working relationships with a host of government bodies such as the Bahrain Bourse and the Central Bank of Bahrain as well as large Bahrain-based investment and financial institutions and universities. It has also helped consolidate Bahrain’s position within the international financial community as part of CFA Institute’s international network of over 141 countries and territories.
Top CFA role for Lamees

Bahrain has elected Lamees Al Bahar as its new president.

“Tahmoud Telare, Chief Financial Analyst (CFA) Bahrain has elected Lamees Al Bahar as its new president.

"I am honored to be the new president of the board of CFA Bahrain," she said following her election.

"I look forward to further enhancing our members' experiences with increasing levels of educational opportunities, member engagement and collaboration.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank the previous board and especially, Khalid Noorudin, past president. We would not be where we are today without his dedication and hard work"

"He will remain an important part of CFA Bahrain and will continue to do so," she added.

"I would also like to welcome the new board members who will hold their positions for the next two years.

"They are highly skilled individuals who will be a driving force in ensuring CFA achieves its key objectives," she said.

"This reflects our ongoing commitment to be involved in every aspect of the investment community here in the kingdom and around the GCC.

"This includes promoting the very highest professional standards and ethics, investor education, investor protection and investment standards of practice, amongst others," she added.

New board members include vice-president Mahmoud Nour, treasurer Ali Mojtahed, secretary Kamlesh Kasarkar and board member William Toome and Zeiba Askar."
CFA Society Bahrain elects new Board of Directors

"نائب رئيس اسبق- جمعية المحترفين الماليين في البحرين"
Al Baharna" president of CFA Society Bahrain

CFA Society Bahrain, the Kingdom's pre-eminent association for local investment professionals, elected its new president and board of directors at its recent Annual General Meeting. The CFA Society Bahrain has been at the forefront in developing ethics, education and good corporate governance within the investment community. Over the past few years it has taken the lead in promoting thought leadership on a broad range of topical issues in what has been demanding period for the sector. It has developed important working relationships with a host of government bodies such as the Bahrain Bourse and the Central Bank of Bahrain as well as large Bahrain based investment and financial institutions and Universities.
CFA Society Bahrain elects new Board of Directors
CFA Society Bahrain appoints new president

Manama, 5 hours, 55 minutes ago

CFA Society Bahrain, an association for local investment professionals, has elected its new president and board of directors at its Annual General Meeting recently.

The president is Lamees Al Bahama and the new members of the board include, Mahmoud Nawar, vice president; Ali Moulani, treasurer; Kamlesh Kasara, board secretary; and William Tohme' and Zeeba Askar, members.

The society has been at the forefront in developing ethics, education and good corporate governance within the investment community. It has developed important working relationships with a host of government bodies such as the Bahrain Bourse and the Central Bank of Bahrain, besides large Bahrain based investment and financial institutions and universities, said a statement.

It has also helped consolidate Bahrain’s position within the international financial community as part of CFA Institute’s international network of nearly 111,000 members based in 141 countries and territories, it said. - TradeArabia News Service
CFA Society Bahrain appoints new president

05/08/2013 15:07 GMT, Trade Arabia

CFA Society Bahrain, an association for local investment professionals, has elected its new president and board of directors at its Annual General Meeting recently.

The president is Jameel Al Baharna and the new members of the board include, Mahmoud Nawar, vice president; Ali Koulany, treasurer; Kamlesh Kasala, board secretary; and William Tohino and Zeeba Askar, members.

The society has been at the forefront in developing ethics, education and good corporate governance within the investment community. It has developed important working relationships with a host of government bodies such as the Bahrain Bourse and the Central Bank of Bahrain, besides large Bahrain based investment and financial institutions and universities, said a statement.

It has also helped consolidate Bahrain’s position within the international financial community as part of CFA Institute’s international network of nearly 111,000 members based in 141 countries and territories, it said.
CFA Society Bahrain appoints new President and Board of Directors
Aug 05 2013

CFA Society Bahrain, the kingdom's pre-eminent association for local investment professionals, elected its new president and board of directors at its recent Annual General Meeting.

The new members of the board are:
- Lamies Al Baharna – President
- Mahmoud Najar – Vice President
- Ali Moulani – Treasurer
- Kamlesh Kachali – Board Secretary
- William Tomme – Board Member
- Zeeba Askar – Board Member

Mrs Lamies Al Baharna, CFA, President of CFA Society Bahrain (pictured), said: "I am honored to be the new president of the Board of Directors of CFA Society Bahrain. I look forward to further enhancing our members' experience with increasing levels of educational opportunities, member engagement and collaboration. As I step in as new president, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the previous board and especially Mr Necnudin, past president, we would not be where we are today without his dedication and hard work. He will remain an important part of the work CFA Society Bahrain will continue to do."

She added: "I would also like to welcome the new board members who will hold their positions for the next two years 2013/2015 - they are highly skilled individuals who will be a driving force in ensuring the Society achieves its key objectives. This reflects our ongoing commitment to be involved in every aspect of the investment community here in the Kingdom and around the GCC, which includes promoting the very highest professional standards and ethics, investor education, investor protection and investment standards of practice, amongst others."

The CFA Society Bahrain has been at the forefront in developing ethics, education and good corporate governance within the investment community. Over the past few years it has taken the lead in promoting thought leadership on a broad range of topical issues in what has been demanding period for the sector. It has developed important working relationships with a host of government bodies such as the Bahrain Bourse and the Central Bank of Bahrain as well as large Bahrain based investment and financial institutions and Universities. It has also helped consolidate Bahrain's position within the international financial community as part of CFA Institute's international network of nearly 111,000 members based in 141 countries and territories. (CFA Society)
CFA Society Bahrain appoints new President and Board of Directors

CFA Society Bahrain, the Kingdom’s pre-eminent association for local investment professionals, elected its new president and board of directors at its recent Annual General Meeting.

The CFA Society Bahrain has been at the forefront in developing ethics, education and good corporate governance within the investment profession. Over the past five years it has taken the lead in promoting thought leadership on a broad range of topical issues in what has been a demanding period for the sector. It has developed important working relationships with a host of government bodies such as the Bahrain Bourse and the Central Bank of Bahrain as well as large Bahrain-based investment and financial institutions and Universities. It has also helped consolidate Bahrain’s position within the international financial community as part of CFA Institute’s international network of nearly 111,000 members based in 144 countries and territories.

The new members of the board are:
- Lamnees Al Baharna - President
- Mahmood Hafar - Vice President
- Ali Makarem - Treasurer
- Faramesh Khoei - Board Secretary
- William Turner - Board Member
- Zaid Al Salim - Board Member

Mrs. Lamnees Al Baharna, CFA, President of CFA Society Bahrain, said: “I am honored to be the new president of the Board of Directors of CFA Society Bahrain. I look forward to further enhancing our members’ experience with increasing levels of educational opportunities, member engagement and collaboration. As I step in as new president, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the previous board and especially Mr. Nonnidd, past president, we would not be where we are today without his dedication and hard work. He will remain an important part of the work CFA Society Bahrain will continue to do.”

She adds: “I would also like to welcome the new board members who will hold their positions for the next two years 2013/2015 - they are highly skilled individuals who will be a driving force in ensuring the society achieves its key objectives. This reflects our ongoing commitment to be involved in every aspect of the investment community here in the Kingdom and around the GCC, which includes promoting the very highest professional standards and ethics, investor education, investor protection and investment standards of practice, amongst others.”
CFA Society Bahrain appoints new President and Board of Directors

CFA Society Bahrain, the Kingdom’s pre-eminent association for local investment professionals, elected its new president and board of directors at its recent Annual General Meeting.

Bahrain: Monday, August 06 - 2013

The CFA Society Bahrain has been at the forefront in developing ethics, education and good corporate governance within the investment community. Over the past few years it has taken the lead in promoting thought leadership on a broad range of topical issues in what has been a demanding period for the sector. It has developed important working relationships with a host of government bodies such as the Bahrain Bourse and the Central Bank of Bahrain as well as large Bahrain based investment and financial institutions and Universities. It has also helped consolidate Bahrain’s position within the international financial community as part of CFA Institute’s international network of nearly 111,000 members based in 141 countries and territories.

The new members of the board are:
- Lamees Al Baharna – President
- Mahmood Najar – Vice President
- AMR Seikali – Treasurer
- Khamis Alszie – Board Secretary
- William Hefney – Board Member
- Ziad Akar – Board Member

Mrs. Lamees Al Baharna, CFA, President of CFA Society Bahrain, said: “I am honored to be the new president of the Board of Directors of CFA Society Bahrain. I look forward to further enhancing our members’ experience with increasing levels of educational opportunities, member engagement and collaboration. As I step in as new president, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the previous board and especially Mr. Nouruddin, past president, we would not be where we are today without his dedication and hard work. He will remain an important part of the work CFA Society Bahrain will continue to do.”

She adds: “I would also like to welcome the new board members who will hold their positions for the next two years 2013/2015 - they are highly skilled individuals who will be driving force in ensuring the Society achieves its key objectives. This reflects our ongoing commitment to be involved in every aspect of the financial community in the Kingdom and around the GCC, which includes promoting the very highest professional standards and ethics, investor education, investor protection and investment standards of practice, amongst others.”

Notes and media contacts
About CFA Institute: CFA Institute is the global association of investment professionals that sets the standard for professional excellence for the investment industry worldwide.

About CFA Society Bahrain: The CFA Society Bahrain is an association of local investment professionals consisting of portfolio managers, investment advisors, and other financial professionals. It is the largest network of CFA charterholders in the GCC region and with 135 members in the GCC, it is expected to continue to grow at the same rate. As a professional society, it is committed to represent the financial industry in Bahrain and the GCC region. The CFA Institute is dedicated to fostering a ethical investment environment around the world. The CFA Institute is dedicated to fostering a ethical investment environment around the world.

Contact:
Hadi Almazroui
AMEinfo@FTI Consulting
T: +971 (0) 4 447 2811
CFA: hadi.almazroui@ameinfo.com

© 2013 by Mediaprint ZLLC. All rights reserved.
This story was posted by Amo Press
Monday, August 06 - 2014 at 12:39 (UTC time / GMT+4)
Find this article at:
http://www.ameinfo.com/cfa-society-bahrain-appoints-president-board-350814

"AMEinfo", "AMEinfo.com", "The Ultimate Middle East Business Resource", and "the news you choose" are trademarks of Mediaprint ZLLC. All other products and trademarks mentioned are trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective companies. Reproduction or redistribution in whole or in part is strictly prohibited without the prior written consent of Mediaprint ZLLC.
CFA Society Bahrain appoints new President and Board of Directors

Bahrain, 08 August 2013 (PIF) – CFA Society Bahrain, the Kingdom’s premier association for local investment professionals, announced its new president and board of directors at its recent annual General Meeting.

The CFA Society Bahrain has been at the forefront in developing ethics, education and good corporate governance within the investment community. Over the past five years, it has placed a strong emphasis on developing leadership in a broad range of related areas to what has been demanding period for the sector. It has established collaborative working relationships with a host of government bodies such as the Bahrain Bourse and the Central Bank of Bahrain as well as large Bahrain based investment and fund management institutions and universities. It has also hosted annual seminars on the international financial community as part of CFA Institute’s international network of nearly 175,000 members based in 96 countries and territories.

The new members of the board are:

• Lamees Al Baharna – Vice president
• Mohammad Nassar – Vice President
• Mubarak M. Abdulkarim
• Hassan Kuzbari – Treasurer
• Milana Yerba – Branch Manager

Ms. Lamees Al Baharna, CFA, President of CFA Society Bahrain, said: “I am honored to be the new president of the Board of Directors of CFA Institute Bahrain. I look forward to further enhancing our investment experience with a broad range of educational opportunities, member engagement and collaboration. As a member of the new president, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the previous board and especially Mr. Nassar, past president, we would not have been able to do without his dedication and hard work, and I am an important part of the work CFA Society Bahrain will continue to do.”

She added: “I am also delighted to welcome the new board members who will hold their positions for the next two years 2013-2015 - they are highly skilled individuals who will be a strong face in ensuring the Society achieves its key objectives. These members are the backing committee to be invited in every aspect of the investment community here in the Kingdom and as the GCC, which includes promoting the very highest professional standards and ethical framework, to ensure protection and strengthened stakeholder relationships, amongst other things.”

About CFA Institute

CFA Institute is the global association of investment professionals that sets the standard for professional excellence for the investment industry worldwide and defines the competencies and ethical standards for the investment profession around the world. CFA Institute has more than 160,000 members and students in 160 countries and territories, including 12,000 CFA chartholders, and 700 investment institute, university, and college affiliation sites. Visit www.cfainstitute.org.

About CFA Society Bahrain

The CFA Society Bahrain is an association of local investment professionals consisting of portfolio managers, investment advisors, consultants and other financial professionals. It is one of the largest member societies in the GCC region and with CFA membership in the GCC exceeding 1000, it stands out as the most dominant in the GCC in terms of professional excellence and overall membership and international investment center.

© Copyright 2013. All Rights Reserved.