

CFA SLOVAK NETWORKING EVENING &

CHRISTMAS PARTY 2016

Thursday, 24 November 2016 at 18:00

Mercure Bratislava Centrum Hotel, Zabotova street 2, Bratislava 1

Post crisis evolution of financial markets, looking for more transparency and investor protection. An insight into the changes in bank trading and compliance activities, as well as commonalities across most of the regulatory requirements (MAR in particular). Eventually, Thomson Reuters approach towards meeting the regulatory requirements will be outlined.

Schedule

- 18:00 WelcomeDrink
- 18:30 Opening Remarks by Michal Mesik, CFA, Manager for Slovakia at CFA Society Czech Republic
- 18:40 Agata Lubieniecka, Thomson Reuters, on "Post crisis evolution of financial markets, looking for more transparency and investor protection"
- 19:20 Q & A Session
- 19:30 Networking & Buffet Dinner

Please confirm your attendance at events@czechcfa.cz by 13 November 2016.

CFA SLOVAK NETWORKING EVENING & CHRISTMAS PARTY 2016

Agata Lubieniecka

Thomson Reuters, Data Solutions Sales Specialist, CEE

Agata graduated from London School of Economics, and started her professional career with Reuters in London. She has held various roles across Geneva, London and Dubai having worked in Customer Support, Sales, Global Corporate Strategy and Operations. For the last 8 years Agata has focused on advising financial institutions how to best use Thomson Reuters data, news and analytics across different activities and systems such as valuations, risk management or algorithmic trading. With the increased regulatory pressure she has been involved in various regulatory projects promoting TR data and solutions to meet regulatory challenges such as Mifid II, Basel III, AIFMD and Solvency II.