My First Decade as a Full-Time Value Investor: Key Learnings & Mistakes
Speaker: Jatin Khemani, CFA

CFA Society India is pleased to invite you for a session with Mr. Jatin Khemani- Founder & CEO at Stalwart Advisors.

Jatin will share his experience of quitting a corporate job to become a full-time value investor, lessons he learnt and mistakes he made along the way.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

Jatin Khemani, CFA, is the Founder & CEO at Stalwart Advisors, a Delhi-based SEBI Registered Investment Adviser which runs an online subscription-based Model Portfolio for long-term value investors in which the Stalwart team is co-invested. Jatin has been investing full-time since a decade and worked in equity research and portfolio management profile for a family office before founding Stalwart Advisors in 2014. Jatin worked as a volunteer with The Art of Living for over a decade and led state level fund-raising campaigns for supporting social causes like literacy and women empowerment. On weekends, he teaches finance to MBA & CFA students. Jatin is a CFA Charterholder and holds an MBA in Finance from Christ University, Bangalore.
