Mission
It is our Mission to:

• Enable and engage members and candidates to pursue professional excellence and ongoing education;

• Promote excellence in ethical and professional standards within the investment community, and leverage our knowledge pool and resources to the benefit of our stakeholders;

• Partner with employers, regulators, industry associations and educational institutions to contribute to a Luxembourgish financial industry for the ultimate benefit of society.

Vision
We envisage a Luxembourg CFA Society:

• As the leading network of finance professionals in Luxembourg, powered by its members;

• As the reference for excellence, ethical practice, integrity and continuing education regarding topics in the investment industry;

• As the advocate shaping the financial industry in Luxembourg in partnership with other organizations, regulators, and members.
Dear Members,

We are closing another successful year for CFA Society Luxembourg. We continue to extend our reach with candidates, Members and the broader community. The exercise 2016-2017 was also marked by an increased in the volume and scope of our activities.

The delivery of value to the members through various events in continuing education and social events (see activity report) remain at the core of our purpose. The introduction of sessions dedicated to soft skills was a success in terms of interest and participations and encourages us to pursue this activity further.

On the other side, significant time and effort are invested to raise public awareness and foster collaboration with other stakeholders in ranging from local associations to institutions and employers.

Society membership reached an all-time high with 371 members at the end of the financial year. 553 candidates were registered for examinations of which more than 200 were new Level 1 candidates.

From an organizational standpoint we have made significant progress to move to ONE CFA community which leverage the global scale of CFA Institute and delivers locally through our CFA society and achieves greater impact in Luxembourg to:

• Develop future Professionals
• Deliver Member Value
• Build Market Integrity

With Paul Smith as CEO, CFA Institute has embarked on this journey. In the course of last year, we saw it come alive and deliver benefits. Working as one team to deliver member value, foster market integrity and develop future finance professionals makes a significant difference. The ever closer cooperation with CFA Institute also helped to put the Society on a more solid financial foundation going forward ensuring that we can continue building new value propositions while at the same time remaining financially sound as per our status as a nonprofit organization.

The outlook for 2018 is promising just a few example of several new initiatives;
• Launch of an Ambassador Program to raise CFA awareness within the major employers of charter holders in Luxembourg;
• Cooperation with House of Training on the delivery of a preparation course for the Investment Foundation Certificate;
• For the first time, 2 teams took part in the 2018 Benelux Investment Research Challenge representing Luxembourg School of Finance and the University of Luxembourg.

Finally, I want to use the opportunity to thank our society volunteers. You are the backbone of the Society day in and day out thanks to your initiative, energy, passion and valuable time commitments! None of our propositions would be possible without your hard and dedicated work. The list of volunteers is long and the variety of ongoing activities really large. You will find a list of some those who contributed in 2017 in this report.

I would like to particularly highlight the contribution of Léon Kirch, Past President and Treasurer, and Michael Mekhaeel, Advocacy Chair, for their efforts. After many years of engagements and volunteering, they are retiring from the Board.

I am looking forward to another exciting year with the CFA Society of Luxembourg and hope that you do too!

Yours,

Philippe Bernard, CFA
President
The Society aims to provide tangible services and value to the membership, to offer continuing education, networking opportunities, job opportunities and points of contact in the local banking and financial sectors. The Board has set the goal of having one event per month on average. Most events attracted an audience of between 20 and 50 members, with networking events typically even more than that. These events would not be possible without the support of our sponsor FactSet, a leading provider of financial information, which has supported our continuing education events by providing a venue and catering.

On the career development side, it is worth noting that 20 job opportunities were communicated to members.

The Society continues to inform and help our CFA candidates to successfully prepare for their exams, while new CFA Charterholders are celebrated at the occasion of our Annual Charter Award Ceremony.

Our association has three main sources of funding:
- Membership fees,
- Financial support from CFA Institute &
- Sponsorship

Sponsorship has become more important as the number of activities has increased. These financial statements are primarily cash-based, with some accruals considered specifically provided for. The annual accounts for the years ended August 31, 2017 were audited independently by Allan Sastrup Jensen and Yves Bodson. Both statutory auditors issued unqualified auditor’s letters, added at the end of the report.

*) Expenditure: Exchange (gain)/loss represents the effect of the strengthening/weakening exchange rate on USD cash and income during the respective year.
