

Bladen J. Burns, CFA
Senior Vice President / Partner

Mr. Burns, 48, joined Fiduciary Management, Inc. (FMI) in 2002 and has been a partner since 2004. He is responsible for the firm's client service and marketing efforts. He began his career with Brown Brothers, Harriman (1992-1994) in Boston, then worked as a Senior Analyst with the Wellesley Group Inc. (1994-1996). He moved to Wisconsin in 1996 to join Strong Capital Management, Inc. where he served as a Senior Vice President in their institutional business group (1996-2002). Mr. Burns has earned the right to use the Chartered Financial Analyst designation and is a member of the CFA Society Milwaukee. He received a BSBA (1992) degree from the Boston University – Questrom School of Business.

In terms of community involvement, Mr. Burns is a Director of the Cedar Street Foundation, a board member at the Milwaukee Repertory Theatre, and serves on investment committee of the Betty Brinn Children's Museum. In 2017, his wife (Julia) and several families founded a public charter high school in Milwaukee called Pathways High. The school is project based and was modeled largely after High Tech High in San Diego. The school has students from diverse racial, socioeconomic and ethnic backgrounds and focuses on mastery of both academic content and life skills through teacher and business partner co-designed projects.

He and his wife reside in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin with their five children (Jack, Reed, Margaux, Colin, and Grace).

FIDUCIARY MANAGEMENT, INC.