

Mark Peiler is the Chief Investment Officer for BNC National Bank and has been with the company for over 20 years. Mark is responsible for management of the bank's fixed income portfolio and client portfolios of its Wealth Management Division. Mark serves on BNC National Bank's Board of Directors and chairs BNC's Asset/Liability Management and Trust Investment Committees. He is a graduate of the University of North Dakota with a B.B.A. in Banking and Financial Economics (summa cum laude) and received his CFA ® Charter in 2000.

CFA Society
Minnesota