

Quartic

specialises in financial education and has been helping candidates prepare for the CFA exams since 2007, using training content specifically designed to provide insights into how the markets really work and how the exam curriculum can be applied to the day's current news stories.

Quartic's intuitive and graphic-rich materials include access to live classroom video recordings, progress tests, practice questions, mock exams and reading and study summaries. They provide courses for all three levels of the CFA Program and offer different packages to suit individual needs.
