

Kenn Lamson, CFA is Head of Nonprofit Relationship Management, where he leads efforts to ensure Vanguard remains the financial services partner of choice to the nonprofit sector.

Prior to his current role Kenn developed and led Vanguard's Portfolio Analytics & Consulting service, providing comprehensive investment consulting to Vanguard's financial advisor clients.

Kenn joined Vanguard in late 2011 from Harmonic Investment Advisors, a wealth management firm he co-founded. He has spent most of his 20+ year career providing investment management services in the banking industry, where he served in the roles of chief investment officer, senior portfolio manager and investment analyst.

Kenn was the founding president of the CFA Society of Idaho and now serves on the Board of Directors of the CFA Society of Philadelphia. He earned his B.S. from Jacksonville State University (AL) and is a CFA charterholder.