

Sean E. Heron, CFA, is the lead portfolio manager for the Glenmede Secured Options Mutual Fund. In addition to managing the Secured Options products, he leads a team responsible for providing clients with a full range of hedging and diversification strategies which incorporate the use of options, futures and other structured products.

Mr. Heron is a board member of the CFA Society of Philadelphia and serves as an instructor for the CFA Exam and as an Adjunct Professor at Rutgers University and Temple University.