

February 17, 2016, Książęca 4, Warsaw

Warsaw Stock Exchange

FORECASTING EVENT

Marc Chandler

Global Head of Currency Strategy, Brown Brothers Harriman

Marc Chandler joined Brown Brothers Harriman in October 2005 as the global head of currency strategy. Previously he was the chief currency strategist for HSBC Bank USA and Mellon Bank. Marc is a prolific writer and speaker.

Link To Marc Chandler's blog: <http://www.marctomarket.com/>

INVITATION

The Forecasting Event is a unique opportunity for investment professionals to gather and discuss their thoughts for economy and financial markets. We hope you will join us for this special occasion.

AGENDA

- 17:30 – 18:00 Registration
- 18:00 – 18:20 Opening Remarks, Prof. Krzysztof Jajuga, CFA Society Poland President
- 18:20 – 19:20 Panel Discussion "Poland Economic Forecasts for 2016" (in Polish)
Rafał Benecki, Chief Economist, ING Bank Śląski
Maciej Reluga, Chief Economist, Bank Zachodni WBK
Piotr Kalisz, Chief Economist, Citi Handlowy
Moderation: Grzegorz Siemionczyk, Journalist, Parkiet
- 19:20 – 20:20 Marc Chandler, Global Head of Currency Strategy, Brown Brothers Harriman
"Global Capital Markets" (in English)
- 20:20 – 21:30 Networking and refreshments

Registration!

To register for this event please e-mail office@cfa.com.pl. Event is free of charge

Event Partners

Society Partner

Marc Chandler

Global Head of Currency Strategy, Brown Brothers Harriman

Marc Chandler joined Brown Brothers Harriman in October 2005 as the global head of currency strategy. Previously he was the chief currency strategist for HSBC Bank USA and Mellon Bank. Marc is a prolific writer and speaker. In addition to being frequently called up to by the newspapers and news wires to provide insight into the developments of the day, Chandler's essays have been published in the Financial Times, Barron's, Euromoney, Corporate Finance, and Foreign Affairs. His analysis blog, www.marctomarket is widely read and picked up by both the traditional and social media. Marc appears often on business television and is a regular guest on CNBC. He frequently presents to business groups and investors. His book, "Making Sense of the Dollar: Exposing Dangerous Myths about Trade and Foreign Exchange" was published by Bloomberg Press in August 2009 and it won a Bronze Award from Independent Publishers.

His current research projects include global imbalances, Islamic finance, and the relationship between savings, investment and growth. Marc has been analyzing the foreign exchange market for more than 20 years. He holds a Master's degree in American history (1982) from Northern Illinois University and a Master's in International Political Economy from the University of Pittsburgh (1984). He has taught classes on International Political Economy at New York University since the early 1990s. He is also a Visiting Executive Lecturer at Darden Graduate School of Business Administration at University of Virginia since 2012.

CFA Society Poland is a not-for-profit organization and one of 147 investment societies in 70 countries that are part of CFA Institute. CFA Society Poland serves its members by providing a regional forum for the discussion of investments, economics and finance. We bring together over 420 investment professionals recognized for their superior knowledge and ethics in the investment field.

Brown Brothers Harriman is a financial services firm that employs nearly 5000 people across 17 global offices. Known for its culture of continuous reinvention, BBH has evolved from its origin as a merchant bank to become a trade financier, a wealth manager, a global custodian and most recently, a provider of technology solutions for asset managers and financial institutions. Operating across three business lines - Investor Services, Investment Management and Private Banking, BBH serves a select number of substantial institutional, corporate and private clients. To read our market commentary, visit www.mindonthemarkets.com

Registration!

To register for this event please e-mail office@cfa.com.pl. Event is free of charge

Find us:

