Dear Member

Thank you to all who attended last month's CFA Society South Africa annual conference. The conference theme "Let's Measure Up in Africa" opened a dialogue of thought-provoking discussion, stimulated debate and provided visionary investment insights and solutions.

"This team is the reason I go to conferences. To be informed of something new, and challenged to think differently" Timothy Brown

"Thanks to @CFA_SA for an awesome conference today, Very informative, expert speakers, lots of insights, and great conversations. Very good use of a day" Garreth Elston
