Dear Valued Member

This month CFA Society South Africa congratulates and welcomes new charterholders, Class of 2018 to the CFA global network.

We also welcome three new board members to the Society; Caroline Cremen, CFA, Lungile Luvuno, CFA and Raazia Ganie CFA.

The Nominations Committee was faced with the very tough task of selecting three new board members from seven excellent applications. Their selection was based on a mandate from the board, defined through a specific set of criteria; identifying gaps in certain skills, industry position and broad-based diversity criteria, amongst others. We congratulate the three candidates who were the best match to the required criteria, and we look forward to the specific contribution they will bring to the board.

Caroline

Lungile

Raazia

This month we are also excited to announce the launch of our new job board in collaboration with CFA Institute. Local and regional (EMEA) career opportunities are now featured on our Career Centre page on the Society website. By joining forces, we're able to highlight local jobs with easy access to the global site for expanded search, customized email alerts for new job opportunities, career content to aid in your job search and career planning.

You can also be part of the jobseeker database for employers, use your CFA institute credentials to sign in, create your individual profile, and get started applying for jobs

The 17th of October marks Global Ethics Day.

In support of the campaign visit the CFA Institute Member App for a variety of articles and resources to practise your ethical decision-making skills. Work through case studies featured in the Ethics in Practice series or register for an interactive webinar exploring additional case studies on the 17th October. Let's put ethics at the heart of what we do - Let's Measure Up!
