Oleksii SOBOLEV, CFA

Short bio:

CFA charter holder from 2011. From August 2016 I'm leading ProZorro.Sale, an award-winning platform for transparent auctions. Currently, we are helping the government to sell assets of the failed banks, privatize and lease out public assets in a transparent way.

After the revolution of dignity, I decided to help the country, that is how in February 2015 I joined the team of Andriy Pyvovarsky, former Minister of infrastructure, as an advisor to the Minister. There I was volunteering for 1.5 years leading projects in state-owned enterprises reform and open data. I was also actively engaged in creating a Ukrainian chapter of an international Construction Sector Transparency Initiative (CoST Ukraine) and later was selected as a head of its supervisory board (www.costukraine.org).

Before the reforms, I was working as a portfolio manager at Dragon Asset Management (currently Ozon Capital) for 8 years (from 2007 till 2015). Before that, I was an auditor at EY Ukraine.

I'm an active CFA Society member, first as a mentor and grader in research challenges, to the volunteer of the year award, to the non-executive board member, to the chair of the advocacy committee and vice president of the society.

My hobbies include music, visual performances, audiobooks, blogging. I am an Aspen Institute fellow.

Married, have two daughters.
