CFA Program is a postgraduate-level, self-study program

- A self-study curriculum with three levels of examinations
- Practical, relevant education based on a practitioner-driven global body of investment knowledge
- Ethical and professional standards emphasized at every level

If you are looking for a passport to the world of finance and investing, earning the CFA charter could be the most important move you make in your career.
About CFA Program

- Benchmark of the highest professional excellence and ethical standards
- One of the most prestigious and respected designations in the investment and financial industry
- Only 1/5 of enrolled candidates complete the program
- Topics examined include ethics and standards of professional conduct, investment analysis and valuation, economics and portfolio management

CFA Program is a globally recognized graduate-level self-study program
The CFA program is a rigorous undertaking.

The average pass rate for CFA Level I Exam is 38% as for June 2013.
“Though the finance industry absorbs many with Masters degrees in Business Administration and finance degrees, the Chartered Financial Analyst qualification, pursued part-time by those already hired, has become the industry’s benchmark.”

“Whereas there are tens of thousands of finance degrees available around the world, ranging from the excellent to the worthless, there is only one CFA… explosive growth has made it, in effect, global currency.”

“The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) qualification is highly rated in financial circles around the world. In many countries it is essential for people working for financial institutions to obtain the license.”

The CFA designation is recognized as the gold standard in investment management and finance.
Each level consists of 18 study sessions delivered in CFA Institute produced custom curriculum.

Six volumes at each level

Study session outline by level on-line.

Reading are sequenced in accordance with Study Guide.

Ethics
Ethics and professional conduct in the financial industry are at the root of the curriculum and exams.

\[ \sqrt{\text{CFA CHARTER}} = \text{ETHICS} \]
Core to CFA Institute is the ongoing development & training in the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.
LAW VS. ETHICS

Law: a clearly defined set of enforceable rules that applies to everyone. It represents a minimum level of expected conduct that everyone must observe.

Ethics: address situations not covered by the law (relations with competitors, interpersonal relations at work) and also contributes to the creation of laws.

There is nothing criminal on unethical behavior
RUN THIS BY THE LEGAL DEPARTMENT, BUT RUN SUPER FAST SO THE ETHICS DEPARTMENT DOESN'T SEE IT.
RATIONALIZING UNETHICAL BEHAVIOR

- Everybody else does it, so it must be okay.
- That is the way they do it at Firm X.
- If we do not do it, someone else will.
- This is the way it has always been done.
- It doesn’t really hurt anyone.
- It’s not a big deal.
- It’s not my responsibility.
- I want to be a team player; I want to be loyal.

Do not try to rationalize your actions
“Honesty is the best policy.’ O.K.! Now, what’s the second-best policy?”
RESOLVING ETHICAL DILEMMAS

1. Acknowledge that there is an ethical issue.
2. Determine who is faced with and owns the problem.
3. Gather the relevant data.
4. Test the wrong vs. right parameters.
5. Test for right vs. right paradigm.
6. Apply the resolution principles.
8. Make a decision.
9. Reflect on what you learn from the decision.

Ethics helps to build trustworthy financial market
THE GOAL OF ETHICS TRAINING

- To encourage you to become more conscious about your thoughts and behaviors so that you are more likely to notice, and act upon, ethical issues before they become a problem.

- To recognize that ethical dilemmas are a normal and predictable part of most jobs.

- To discuss approaches for dealing with ethical issues.
After a day of long negotiations with a vendor, you take a break and agree to resume negotiations in the morning. You escort the vendor out of your office and upon returning to your office, you realize that the vendor left a folder on the conference table. You should:

A. Look in the folder.
B. Walk past the table quickly and “accidentally” knock the folder off the table, spilling the contents.
C. Look in the folder, but disclose that you looked at the contents.
D. Not look in the folder.
You are portfolio manager in the international sector, who travels to a foreign country to investigate investment opportunities for your institutional clients. The management of a large company that you visit (and a potentially attractive investment opportunity) gives you a very expensive gift. Refusing the gift would be considered an insult in this country and harm the good relations that you have developed with the company’s management. Accepting the gift is:

A. Ok, because refusal in this instance would jeopardize an investment opportunity for your clients.
B. Probably ok, if you give the gift to charity.
C. Probably not ok, if you don’t tell your supervisor that you accepted the gift.
D. Not ok.
You are a securities analyst at a hedge fund. One day you have lunch with a friend, who is the executive assistant to the President of Micro Technology. During lunch your friend tells you, that she has been working late because her boss has been meeting with the President of Pambext Systems. After returning to your office, you learn that Pambext is rumored to be a takeover target, so you purchase shares of the company for your personal portfolio. Later in the day, you tell your boss about the conversation that you had with your friend. Your boss observes that there has been heavy buying of Pambext shares recently, so he purchases shares of Pambext for the hedge fund. Should you or your boss have purchased shares in Pambext?

A. You and your boss were free to purchase shares.
B. Only you should have purchased shares.
C. Only your boss should have purchased shares.
D. Neither you nor your boss should have purchased shares.

UNIVERSITY RECOGNITION PROGRAM

The purpose is to recognize the efforts of academic institutions that embed a significant portion of the CFA Program Candidate Body of Knowledge (CBOK) into their curricula.

Recognized universities have the following benefits:

- Are listed on the CFA Institute website
- May award CFA Program scholarships to students if they agree to promote the CFA Program and attest to their promotional activities.
- May reference their CFA Institute endorsement in promoting their programs

The only university in Ukraine that implements University Recognition program is Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv
In 2012 Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv welcomed into University Recognition Program.

The MSc in Corporate Finance Program has been acknowledged as:

- incorporating at least 70 percent of the CFA Program Candidate Body of Knowledge (CBOK)
- placing emphasis on the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice within the program.

It is a signal to potential students, employers, and the marketplace that the University curriculum is closely tied to professional practice and is well-suited to preparing students to sit CFA examinations.

Implementation of the CBOK shows the strong background of your University graduates.
CFA Institute provides a host of educational resources in a variety of formats, including:
