

This will be published each Friday with offers of space in the EU member states by CFA network and will include housing, Job opportunities including indication at which level, and other help, such as schools etc

On coming to EU Member states:

The EU Commission has just published a new leaflet containing all the practical information for the people fleeing the war in Ukraine.

It includes all the information about:

- Entering in the EU
- Rights in the EU
- Travelling in the EU
- Temporary protection
- Asylum

If you are working with refugees or volunteering in support of people fleeing the war, you can download, print and distribute the leaflet at will.

Offers on housing in EU Member states plus Switzerland, Turkey, Norway and UK (this is just starting up, we are gathering connectors at each society)

CFA network:

UK : We have a double room with its own bathroom and a separate room that can take either two single beds or another double. We're in the Norfolk countryside – 20mins away from Norwich and 30mins from Bury St Edmunds. London reachable by train for commuting.

UK: One bedroom is there for however long someone needs it. For a woman, even with one child. Is 40 mins train ride from London, borders of Essex and East London in a 2 bedroom house with a garden.

General website for all refugees: <https://icanhelp.host> but we cannot verify details.

Employment

Each week we will put links but also individual opportunities of which we hear:

Deloitte is opening jobs for Ukrainian refugees see link
