

David Smith
Managing Director
Pinnacle Fund Services

David is the Managing Director and founding partner of Pinnacle Fund Services. Pinnacle is an accounting and valuation firm providing services to hedge funds, private equity and venture capital firms throughout North America, David is responsible for the delivery of fund administration services to Pinnacle clients, the development of Pinnacle's technology platform and operating systems and the strategic and business development of the company.

David began his career with Grant Thornton in Vancouver and then worked for investment related firms in Bermuda and the United states before starting Pinnacle.

David is a Chartered Accountant, holds an Economics degree from Queen's University and holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation. David is the current chair of CFA Societies Canada, is the Presidents Council Representative for Canada to the CFA Institute and Board of Governors. He is the past president of CFA Society Vancouver and was awarded the CFA Institute Volunteer of the Year award in 2017.