

Dia Martin, CFA

Managing Director

U.S. International Development Finance Corporation

Ms. Dia Martin, CFA is a Managing Director on the Social Enterprise Finance team at the DFC where she originates debt financings across multiple emerging markets. She also leads the Portfolio for Impact & Innovation program, which is focused on financing scalable, earlier stage projects that are highly developmental. Through this program, DFC has provided over $100 million in debt financing to innovative businesses that are committed to having a positive social impact.

Prior to her current position, Ms. Martin was in Germany for three years where she was a Risk Manager with Finance in Motion GmbH and a recipient of the Robert Bosch Foundation Fellowship in 2007-2008 with a focus on development finance. Ms. Martin has also held positions with Citigroup's Public Finance department, Moody's Investors Service and J.P. Morgan.

Ms. Martin is a member of Kaufman Fellows, Class 24. She has a MA in International Relations from Johns Hopkins University Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies and a MBA in Finance from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. She received her B.S. in Finance from Hampton University.