

Gabriel Petre, CFA, CAIA
Lead Investment Strategist,
The World Bank

Gabriel Petre leads the team responsible for developing the asset allocation and ESG integration strategy for the World Bank's post-retirement benefit funds. As part of his work, he is also involved in advising public pension funds of developing countries on governance, investment policy and asset allocation issues and official institutions of commodity-rich countries in setting up sovereign wealth funds.

He joined the World Bank Treasury in July 2006. Before joining the World Bank, he worked for the National Bank of Romania, as part of the team in charge of the Foreign Reserves portfolio. He has an MBA from Georgetown McDonough School of Business and is a CFA and CAIA charterholder.